

Responsibilities:Machine Operation:

- Operate assigned machines, tools and workstations in accordance with SOPs, work instructions and line requirements.
- Perform routine start-up, shutdown and basic operating checks before and during production.

Production Support:

- Record production output, process readings and abnormalities accurately and promptly.
- Segregate non-conforming items and escalate issues to the supervising engineer.

Housekeeping & Safety:

- Maintain good housekeeping, 5S and cleanliness at the workstation and surrounding area.
- Comply strictly with safety instructions, PPE requirements and operating controls.

Continuous Support:

- Support changeover, cleaning, routine inspections and other assigned operational
- Participate in training and follow instruction from line supervisor and engineers.

Qualification and Requirement:

- Minimum SPM, Technical Certificate or equivalent.
- Relevant experience in factory or production environment is preferred.
- Must be able to follow work instructions and maintain accurate records.
- Must possess basic command of English and/or Malay, both spoken and written.

Preferred Skills:

- Basic machine operation and process discipline.
- Good attention to detail and willingness to learn.
- Able to complete records and checklists accurately.
- Good teamwork and communication.